
TVS Program Meetings

TVS Program Meetings

The Department of Motor Vehicles (DMV) is hosting two industry meetings to discuss changes to the Traffic Violator School (TVS) program that will be implemented in 2011 and 2012. The meetings are open to all licensed and court approved Traffic Violator Schools, Industry Associations, Court Assistance Program (CAP), and other interested groups. (Refer to the attached Save the Date flyer.)

It is anticipated the same agenda will be used for both meetings and may include the following topics:

- TVS conviction versus TVS dismissal
- Operator education program
- Owner/operator/instructor application program
- Curriculum approval process
- TVS course provider list
- TVS completion certificates
- Establishment of a two-part fee process

NOTE: Telephone conferencing will be available. The agenda and information regarding how to teleconference will be provided via the California DMV's Automated E-mail Alert System.

Background

New legislation mandates major changes to the TVS program. These changes include curriculum, operator/instruction education, requirements, and fees.
